

Forests made by Ted Stewart-Wynne. Above and below are two examples of Toy split-turned echidnas. The top forest is made in jarrah. Note the

The bottom forest is in olive wood

6+ and assist in the development of hand-eye Toy forests are suitable for children aged 2 to co-ordination

approx. 265 Base approximately 20 thick approx. 125

Base

random 12 deep x 20Ø holes. Ensure

30 30 50Ø

Trees

Ease "trunks" for an easy fit into base holes and gently round all sharp corners

TOY FOREST By Ted Stewart-Wynne

Woodturners Association of Western Australia - Swan Woodturners Drawing Library - Drawing S19 - 1 of 2

Scale: ½ Full Size

S 19

Woodturners Association of Western Australia - Swan Woodturners Drawing Library - Drawing S19 - 2 of 2

By Ted Stewart-Wynne

Scale: $\frac{1}{2}$ Full Size

TOY FOREST

S 19

Trees

Ease "trunks" for an easy fit into base holes and gently round all sharp corners

30

44Ø 20Ø

70

Drawn by Richard Barkman 1842 -September 2020