PRESIDENT'S COMMENTS.

Now that we're entering the count-down period for the next Annual General Meeting, two things go through my mind. First, who is going to volunteer to wear the President's badge, and second, what sort of President have I been?

As to the first, I can assure anybody who is interested that the job won't kill you -- there's a great bunch of Committee and volunteers who do 90% of the work -- in fact I believe I have grown in confidence and self-esteem because of all the kind words and actions that have come my way, and I can say quite firmly that I have enjoyed my term in office.

As to the second, well, that's for you to judge. But I do regret that I haven't done more to further the cause of a headquarters for the Association. The many members who don't play a very active part in the organising of our weekends can have little appreciation of the really hard work that goes into these weekends. They don't just happen. They are planned, organised and put into effect by a dedicated few, who cannot be expected to continue doing it in the same way for ever.

A home of our own would simplify life in so many ways, and would, by improving our facilities, improve the Association for everybody. So think about it before September, and let's make the big decision. Jon.

FROM THE EDITOR

For the first time since becoming editor, a response has been received to my invitation and five letters expressing points of view have been received. They have all been published [see pages 4 and 5] and will, I hope, lead to further contributions. Remember this is your Newsletter and it relies on your participation. Do not leave it all to others.

Please note that letters for the Secretary or for our Membership Secretary should be addressed to them. Letters to the editor should only concern items relating to the Newsletter. We are still wanting technical articles that will be of interest to other members - helpful tips or gadgets that you have found useful will all be welcome.

Robin Halbert.

OBITUARIES.

It is with deep regret we note the passing of our members Stan Clarke of Kelmscott and Malcolm France of Coolbellup. We extend our sincere condolences to Mrs Peggy Clarke and family and to Mrs Ann France and her family.

PROBLEM CORNER.

If you are having a particular problem share it with our members and you may well get a solution.

PROBLEM: When finishing the bottom of a bowl or the top of a pedestal, it is very difficult to achieve a smooth finish. Have any members a method of achieving this without using an inordinate amount of sandpaper ?

Explanation of Activities.

9.00 John Clark will show how he segments his clocks and will show different stages of the process.
10.30 John Shinnick is a professional turner and one of the foundation members of our Association. He teaches woodturning in Bunbury. His presentation is centred on the skew, its problems and remedies.
11.30 The mini competition will be a darning mushroom. All material will be supplied, so enter and enjoy yourself.
1.00 The Association's finishing expert, Keith Johnson will demonstrate the Little Beaver spray gun, and discuss its merits. No doubt general finishing will be touched on.
3.30 Prior to coming to Perth in 1978 Ken Locke was Senior Lecturer in photographic design at Hong Kong Polytechnic. He will discuss and demonstrate simple and inexpensive methods to produce high quality transparencies for submission to interstate and international competition.
4.30 Our resident auctioneer and raconteur par excellence, Viv Paust will conduct the tool and gadget auction.
Sunday.
10.30 Bill Watters will explain how he segments bowls using segments for the sides and solids for the base. He will discuss the "sandwich" and will then turn an example.
11.15 Many of you may have seen David Dalgano on TV with Our Home show. He will talk about and show his environmentally friendly products, including some new lines.
1.00 A Sunday highlight will be Des Miller on design. Des will critique the competition items as well as appropriate items from Show and Tell. A presentation not to be missed.

COMPETITION LEEDERVILLE MARCH 94.

Subject: A vase to height of 400mm

This choice of subject could have been expected to appeal to more competitors. It is difficult to choose subjects with wide appeal. This is the reason we ask for your comments and suggestions. The competitions at present are taken from suggestions handed in last year so your feedback would be much appreciated. Thirteen people entered with three in Beginners, five in Intermediate and five in Open. Thanks very much to all our entrants.

RESULTS.

Beginners: 1st David Devereaux C.Laurel (61)
2nd Barry Spencer - Jarrah. (63)
3rd David Cassidy - Jarrah. (62)

Intermediate: 1st Bert McDonough - C.Laurel (44)
2nd Ray Bowra - Jarrah. (42)
3rd Ted Cotgrove - Blackboy. (45)

Open: 1st Alan France - Jarrah. (25)
2nd Bob Nichols - Jarrah. (22)
3rd Len Nicholls - C Lilac/Jacaranda (24)

Ladies Choice: Alan France.

61 people voted. Please use your vote, our competitors need your encouragement. You don't have to be an expert to like one item better than another.

COMPETITION ALBANY APRIL 94.

Subject: A matched pair of anything.

Imaginations were given free rein here but again we had a fairly small number of entries, eighteen. Six in each class, ranging from lace bobbins and earrings to book ends and table lamps.

RESULTS.

Beginners: 1st David Devereaux - Stylised birds in Camphor Laurel. (61)
2nd Gerald Young - Picture frames in Oak. (62)
3rd Don Burton - Lace bobbins in Cottoneaster. (65)

Intermediate: 1st Ted Cotgrove - Wall lights in Jarrah (43)
2nd Bert McDonough - Balls on stands in Jarrah. (44)
3rd Jon Croft - Candlestick in Camphor Laurel. (42)

Open: 1st Brian Launer - Sandalwood boxes.(26)
2nd Alan France - Sheoak boxes. (24)
3rd Ken Rex - Jarrah Table Lamps. (21)

Ladies Choice: Brian Launer.

49 people voted. Again, thanks to all who entered and to all who voted. Without you we have no competition and a popular part of our weekends would be lost. Keep it up. Happy shavings. Eric Walker.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

The secret of life is not to do what one likes, but to try and like what one has to do.

John Dickson Carr.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL MEMBERS.

WEEKEND MEETINGS. As a voluntary and rapidly growing organisation, it is important that the following be considered and understood by all members, particularly perhaps those who have joined in recent years. Our weekend meetings provide the best opportunity for sharing knowledge, techniques and fellowship and are enjoyed and appreciated by all. However, it is time for a reminder about our organisational arrangements.

1. Weekend meeting programs are arranged in turn once per year by Group Convenors who strive to arrange an interesting, educational and innovative program.
2. The onus is upon the organising Group to tow the chuck wagons away from the previous venue, hold them in safe storage for the ensuing month, then take them to their weekend meeting venue. Before towing to the next venue, check tyre pressures and tail lights. Please ensure the keys are passed on. One chuck wagon can be stored in a shed at the rear of Timbecon premises at John Street, Bentley.
3. Our ladies join us at our Weekend meetings and readily assist at the Registration desk and in the kitchen. Everyone will agree that our ladies look after us very well indeed. But, is it fair to expect our ladies to clean up everything in the kitchen/dining areas, particularly mopping the floors before we leave? It is unfortunate and unfair for the same group of volunteers to deal with these matters month after month.

WE NEED MORE VOLUNTEERS TO SHARE THE LOAD. It is basically the Host Group's responsibility to organise volunteers for the following tasks:

1. Tow chuck wagons away from previous venue for safe keeping and return to their venue.
2. Load and unload chuck wagons, carry equipment to and from.
3. Arrange Reception desk and kitchen volunteers in liaison with Thora Smith - Reception, Phone 447 5437 and Marie Lathwell - Kitchen, Phone 291 6280.
4. Clean up whole area and return furniture to correct location as found on arrival. (We have been fined for not replacing furniture.)
5. Arrange at least four male volunteers to clean floors including vacuum cleaning of carpeted areas and mopping of tiled floors in the eating areas.

These tasks need not be the sole responsibility of Group Convenors. Any one of us can assist and liaise to ensure smooth running and sharing the load.

Thank you in advance for volunteering. Max Hayles.
Weekend Co-ordinator.

* MOORA WEEKEND 20/21st AUGUST.

JIM PEMBER of North of the River Group will organise a bus to the Moora Meeting for the Saturday if sufficient members are interested. It is expected that the bus would leave about 6am and arrive back about 8pm. Would those interested please ring Jim on 409 9124.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR ...

"As one who attends weekend workshops on a fairly regular basis and precious little else, I am pleased to respond to your invitation. I guess I am one of the number who makes it on Saturday and not Sunday. My reason has been lack of time to stay both days. The weekend goes quickly enough and the Saturday programme always looks more attractive being for a full day. I am happy with the format, would accommodate change if the members desired, but I do not seek change. I am happy with the country visit every other month because it challenges me to hitch up and use the caravan. I hope you stick with that.

One thing I would like to suggest is that you describe the pieces when writing up the competition. When we vote we vote for a number – the turner is anonymous. When I read that Gerald Young won the Beginners section etc at Brunswick I have no way of knowing what number he had (I forget what I voted for anyway) and more importantly I don't know what the piece was (one does remember outstanding work if reminded). If you (or Eric Walker) could mention the pieces briefly, I think readers would take more interest in the competition.

By the way I wondered whether a beginners piece had been disqualified. It was the best bit on show in my opinion but was "apparently" too large to qualify. Careful examination showed that it was made of a number of small pieces glued together leaving one uncertain as to whether the specified size of billet could have stretched that far. If it did the result was truly outstanding showing both craftsmanship and a very clever intellect. I found it one of the most intriguing pieces I have seen in a competition. Of course I don't know who did it, nor can I remember the number. But if you described the piece, I would know if Gerald Young did it or if not who and, importantly, if it was adjudged to be outside the guidelines. Publication of names and the fact of disqualification might need to be done carefully in case someone is hurt and spits the dummy but I reckon you could handle it without offence."

Richard Leggo. (No. 82)

"Our present situation reminds me of a story about a group of little boys who badly wanted a tent. They had a few meetings, then scrounged poles, ropes, canvas etc. and spent two weeks working together to build their beaut tent. This effort was most enjoyable. On completion, the lads sat in their tent. After a few days this got boring, interest waned. WAWA has a "tent".

Weekend Workshops: I can only speak about Southwest meetings, city meetings may be different.

- 1. All meetings are extremely well organised and conducted.*
- 2. Having 6 to 7 lathes available for demos, hands on, seem too much/many. Audience interest is divided, many lathes are idle.*
- 3. People travelling long distances may stay overnight and show up on Sunday. Those who travel shorter distances seem to stay one day only. Do we have daily attendance figures?*
- 4. Why do we attend? Loyalty to WAWA? To learn something new? To renew acquaintances? Check on who is doing what? I do.*
- 5. I suggest for distant country meetings two days. As these occur a year apart normally roll ups seem pretty good. Metro area, try one day every second month. Let members vote with their feet.*

Monthly Competition: Some of us seem too busy doing "commercial work" to make a "perfect thing" for the competition unless it fits into our normal line of work. Some of us in spite of doing beautiful work are a bit shy to enter articles. These people need encouragement.

Our group have a monthly competition – a simple item anyone can produce. Entry fee $1. Popular vote 1–2–3, points 3:2:1. Winner takes all, no self vote. It works well! I suggest the monthly competition is continued. I hope some of my rambling thoughts serve some way to further WAWA ideals. Maybe we will find our tent is useful after all."

John Wallace. (No. 43)

"I am writing to express my astonishment at finding "recipes" for Carrot Cake and Peanut Caramel Squares in our Woodturners Magazine. I didn't think we had to resort to this sort of thing in our magazine. I feel the ladies are well catered for in many of the commercial magazines available. I believe this magazine should only have information, news etc relating to our Association. I realise the ladies play an important part in our Association, but I feel we are losing focus in resorting to this sort of thing.

You may say in response that you are not getting enough news etc. from the groups to publish in our newsletter. Perhaps a letter to each group Convenor and the Secretary of our Association requesting news items may be of help."

Rod Williams. (No.85.)

Editor's Note: Limitation on space in this issue prevents us publishing the Bunbury Group's activities sent to us by Rod Williams.

"The Membership Registrar of our Association is currently a volunteer. This important office and function does not have the dignity of being an elected position and therefore little authority. In our modern society an increasing number of volunteers are called upon to carry out the jobs the rest of us find too difficult or unpleasant. It concerns me that so many knockers have heaps of negative and destructive criticism to offer. At the same time they are particularly careful not to be seen as pushing for the office or eager to offer to assist.

In my short membership of this Association, I have always found our current Membership Registrar to be helpful, courteous, pleasant and more than willing to help at all hours of the day and night. Bearing in mind we have trouble enough obtaining nominations for elected positions and office, should we be working so vigorously to alienate a volunteer? I believe the duties of the office are being carried out correctly, diligently, efficiently, with good grace and a sense of humour. Without thorough and reliable servants performing responsible and important duties in our Association the place would become a shambles. Congratulations Cheryl on a terrific job. Keep up the good work."

Ron Ahrens. (No.841)

"Fellow Woodies, It was a nice change to see something for the women in our Newsletter. As I'm sure you all realise that without the ladies participation in our weekends, they would not run as smoothly as they do. Therefore it is only fair and proper that the ladies are also catered for in this Newsletter. I am sure we don't have any Male Chauvinists in our Association who would object to this do we?"

As not only a woman, but also someone who is into woodturning in a big way, I am very interested in technical articles or helpful hints in our magazine. Unfortunately only a few members ever contribute these types of articles to our newsletter. If we want more of these types of articles, then it is up to each and every one of us to contribute to the newsletter. If we don't, we can hardly sit back and complain about the contents of it can we?"

Cheryl Russell. (No.830)

BASIC TIPS FOR NEW TURNERS.

1. Soak blackboys in water for 2-3 days before turning. This helps prevent toxic dust when turning.
2. Green wood rough turn to 1 - 2 inch diameter, paint with 3 coats of Woodshield, let dry between each coat. Weigh bowl and write both date and weight on the bottom. Store in sawdust in a cool place. Check weight of bowl every 3 months until weight is stable.
3. If you don't have a dust extractor, place fan behind you. This blows most of the fine dust away from you.
4. Use Graphite Dust on lathe beds instead of C.R.C. or Oil to prevent lathe beds from becoming sticky.
5. It is safer to use a Cone Pin Drive instead of a Spur Drive for ALL Spindle turning.
6. Incorporate a clutch with your lathe to reduce wear and tear on starter compactor when stop starting lathes, ie: sanding, or making small objects. You can do this yourself.
7. A good idea for general maintenance is to occasionally soak your chuck in diesel to lubricate the chuck and keep internal workings clean. ie: Vic Mark, Scroll. It is important to keep dust and grit out of the threads.

Safe turning, Russ.

NEW PRODUCTS

Once again we have no news from our advertisers on new products. Are there really no new products that would be of interest to our turners ???

TO DIFFER VIOLENTLY ON EVERYTHING THEY LIKE, AND TO AGREE ONLY ON THEIR
DISLIKES - THAT IS THE BASIS OF FRIENDSHIP.

John Dickson Carr.

ROTARY CHISEL HOLDER.

Robert John Henry Brooks.

Materials.

A 500mm plough disc.
Tube 26mm outside diam, 18mm inside diam, 850mm long.
Tube 16mm outside diam, 13mm inside diam, 250mm long.
2 x 9mm studs.
100mm x 100mm x 3mm steel plate.
Rod 13mm diam, 180 mm long.
PVC pipe 250mm outside diam. 240mm inside diam. 300mm long.
2 melamine discs 240mm diam.
2 metal bushes to fit over 13mm rod.
PVC tubing 38mm outside diam. 31mm inside diam. 100mm long, one end cut at 45 degree angle. The number will depend on the number of chisels to be held.
PVC cement.
Araldite.
Pop rivets.

Method.

Weld the 26mm tube to the plough disc, insert the 16mm tube and hold with 9mm studs - height to be adjusted to suit.

Weld the steel plate to the top of the 16mm tube and then weld the 13mm rod to the top of the plate.

Insert a metal bush into the middle of each melamine disc and fix with araldite. Fix one disc at the bottom of the 250mm PVC pipe and the second 150mm from the bottom using self tappers to fasten.

Glue the 38mm PVC tubing to the outside of the 250mm PVC using PVC cement and having the 45 degree cut end at the bottom.

The holder is then placed over the top rod and your rotary chisel holder is ready for action.

REQUEST FROM OUR SECRETARY

Would all clubs who presently send a copy of their newsletters to the Woodturners Association of Western Australia, please direct them to the Secretary, Neil Basden and not the Editor. This would be much appreciated.

Our secretary's address is: Mr Neil BASDEN
