Date: Thursday July 28, 2022

Time: 8.30am for a 9am start
Finish 3.30pm

Venue: Wandí Woodturners.
302 De Haer Rd,
Wandí WA 6167,

Central Topic:

The focus of this session will be an introduction to embellishing.

You will work on a shallow bowl made to set measurements, which you will turn beforehand. (Instructions and drawing provided to participants).

Secondary Considerations:

You will learn:

texturing with Dremel or similar, making and using templates for turning and design, Using marker pens on designs.

alternative embellishment ideas for this shape:

colouring, pyrography, painting, simple carving, piercing

Timber:

Participants are to supply their own timber. Please ensure the timber has no cracks or holes.

Jacaranda is always perfect, but plain camphor or any timber with a tighter grain that is light in colour.

Please bring along 2 examples, that way you can do the leaves and texturing during the morning and tackle something else after lunch that you can complete at home if necessary.

Tools:

Please bring a selection of general turning chisels, bowl gouges, spindle gouges, roughing gouge, parting, skewers, abrasives, face mask etc

Tea, coffee will be available. Please BYO lunch. You won't have time to purchase lunch at a shop.
